DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 10, 11, 17-19, and 22-25 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments, see pages 4 and 5 of amendment, filed 30 November 2005, with respect to claims 9-11 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The objection of claims 9-11 has been withdrawn.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

4. Referring to claims 10, 11, and 25, the prior art did not teach "dynamically calculating, with the application server, a current maximum restart time by subtracting from said maximum request response time processing time of further activities associated with said restart processing".

5. Referring to claims 17, 18, and 19, the prior art did not teach "dynamically calculating a restart time required to restart a resource manager in case of termination or recovery of said resource manager including the time required for processing further activities associated with the restart process."

6. Referring to claims 22, 23, and 24, the prior art did not teach “dynamically calculate a restart time required to restart a resource manager in case of termination or recovery of said resource manager including the time required for processing further activities associated with the restart process.”

7. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”

Conclusion

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Joseph D. Manoskey whose telephone number is (571) 272-3648. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon.-Fri. (7:30am to 4pm).

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Robert Beausoliel can be reached on (571) 272-3645. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
